The exclusive 328 body is formed mostly from steel. The front hood is aluminium the floorplan is fibreglass steel. Under its skin the 328 chassis is an oval-section tube frame, offering race car rigidity without a weight penalty.

Even with its larger wheels /tyres the greater power and low weight of the 328 rocketed it to 60mph in well under 6 sec.

The 328 is something of a rarity in being able to hit its redline in 5th gear a further testament to its design and ability

This Ferrari is immaculate, just serviced all books & complete service history , quicker than Australian Version
